Old Business:

Fundraising Ideas:

Car Smash –Could be done during Ride

Barn Dance in the show ring on July 22nd, charge $5 for non-4H and adults $3 for 4H and FFA, clubs volunteer to do setup and tear down – photo booth – clubs create their own backdrop and each club donate a box of film ($24). Chaperones from each club – have the concession stand open during the dance. DJ would donate their services. Hours: 7 to 10 – as curfew is 10:30

Trap shoot – Have an entry fee and run as a tournament

Motion to do the Car Smash during Ride weekend, Barn Dance on July 22nd and a Trap shoot in the fall, 2nd, vote to approve

Details were referred to committee the fundraising committee (Michelle, Teri)

Bronc Ride – Saturday 23rd – do we want to do concessions and or sell tickets?

Go back to the clubs and see if they are available and want to take tickets

Bring back names of individuals

Fair Book – office working on and needs clarification on dates (switch Obedience and Skil-a-Thon on Monday (Obedience & Agility) and Wednesday (Skil-a-Thon)

Shooting Sports Exhibition on Thursday after the BBQ

Air pistol is open – need to email or phone the office for signing up

New Business:

New fair program ordered – Candie and Mat will do weigh-ins and check ins electronically

This program is online and can be accessed from a smart phone

Do we allow our market chickens to be sold at the fair?

Judges: Need herdsmans judges – run like last year

May need to look at the amount of time the judge is here

Currently they are paid $25 per species instead of the time they are here.

Main judges are the livestock, horse and dog and are there all day

Indoor judges – idea of giving them an object of some kind instead of paying them.

Indoor food sales – need a temporary food license, cannot sell food that has been canned, but can sell baked goods.

Meeting adjourned at 8:02 p.m.
